Press Release

Las Vegas garage door expert provides tips on how to select the right company for garage door projects

Las Vegas and Henderson, NV garage door company, Damian Douglas Garage Door shows consumers what to look for when hiring a garage door company

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAS VEGAS, NV, August 11, 2011: Garage doors are designed to be sturdy and function reliably. Occasionally, they break down and require maintenance. When that time comes, most consumers do not know how to select the best garage door service company for their project.

16-year Las Vegas, NV garage door veteran and owner of Damian Douglas Garage Door, Damian Douglas, says most consumers choose repair companies without first asking the right questions. "Some consumers just don't know the questions to ask. They fail to ask questions or even check references before making their decisions."

To help Las Vegas garage door consumers select the right companies for their garage door projects, Mr. Douglas is advising consumers to check for the following before deciding on a repair company.

Check the company's insurance coverage

It is important that the company maintain adequate insurance coverage for their employees and business. "Consumers have the right to ask for a copy of the insurance coverage and the company has to provide it. Most consumers either do not know this or choose not to ask for it and this can be dangerous because they could be dealing with fly-by-night operators."

Ask about garage door experience

Ask the garage door company how much experience their technicians have and how long the company has been in business. If the company is new, ask about the owner's experience. Find out how long he or she has been in the profession. Damian Douglas garage Door has been in business in Las Vegas and surrounding cities for about 20 years and the family has been in the profession for over 30 years.

Check reviews from other garage door consumers

Past customers write reviews. These reviews represent their opinions on the services provided by these companies. Look for companies with positive reviews from known authorities like Better Business Bureau (BBB), Yelp, YellowPages, Kudzu and Service Master.

Look for professional affiliations

Genuine garage door service companies belong to professional associations like the International Door Association (IDA) and the Better Business Bureau (BBB). These are national associations devoted to the professionalism and continuing education of garage door dealers. Companies that belong to these organizations have agreed to provide professional service, be honest with their customers and resolve issues quickly.
