Press Release

Las Vegas garage door specialist reveals ways to get best deals on new garage doors

Damian Douglas, owner of Damian Douglas Garage Door in Las Vegas says following these steps will help you score good deals on garage doors and garage door services

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAS VEGAS, NV, Oct. 12, 2011: When the time comes to replace your aging garage door, will you know how to get the best deal?

Garage door quality and prices vary depending on the manufacturer and material used but Damian Douglas, owner of Damian Douglas Garage Door (<http://www.damiandouglasgaragedoor.com>) says that consumers can get the best deals on garage doors if they are willing to follow few simple steps.

“It doesn’t matter who your favorite manufacturer is, whether you are looking for traditional steel or fiberglass garage doors, you can get the best deal out there by doing these simple steps,” he said.

Las Vegas, NV based Damian Douglas Garage Door installs and services garage doors, garage door openers and springs in Las Vegas, Henderson and Summerlin.

Douglas said consumers should begin by doing their homework. “What you see is most consumers just buy the cheapest garage door they can find but that may not always be the best. Start by deciding the type of garage door you are looking for and your price range. Knowing this alone eliminates the need to spend hours looking at doors that are not in your price range.”

“Garage doors come in various styles. Think ahead about the style and materials you want. Are you looking for Carriage House, Contemporary, Raised Panel or Traditional Steel garage door? Do you prefer wooden doors to fiberglass or aluminum? Decide who your ideal manufacturer is. Each manufacturer is different,” he added.

The 20-year garage door veteran said consumers should also visit different garage door manufacturers’ websites to see samples of the doors available. “They need to visit garage door dealers, not just one or two, as many as possible because different dealers have different prices.”

Mr. Douglas said besides researching various garage doors and garage door manufacturers, consumers should speak to different installers and service companies.

“You will be amazed at the difference in the prices quoted by garage door service companies. In Las Vegas, Summerlin and Henderson (Nevada), Damian Douglas Garage Door offers quality installation and service at great prices. We guarantee our work but not everyone can say that. We have been in the business for nearly 30 years and we make sure our customers are satisfied before we consider the jobs done.”

“Make sure the company you hire to install your garage door offers workers insurance to their employees so you are not responsible for them. Check their prices and references. Ask for and call those references to make sure they are who they say they are. Call your local BBB (Better Business Bureau) for information,” he added.
